Council Prepares To Annex Area North Of Foothill Blvd.

In a move to extend the city boundaries, the Upland city council last night authorized the city manager to draw up a petition for property owners of the area from Foothill boulevard north to Sixteenth street and from the present city limits to Central avenue, requesting annexation to the City of Upland.

Should the petition be signed by 25 per cent of the property owners in the area involved, and those signers own at least 25 per cent of the total value of the property, then the city will hold an election in this area to see if the residents favor joining the city.

City Attorney Henry Busch outlined the legal procedure for the council. The council discussed the extended boundaries at length and discussed two other alternatives: Going all the way to the county line, or going only as far north as Thirteenth street.

As the city supplies water to residents and businesses on Foothill, they have already agreed that whether or not the proposed annexation would go to Sixteenth street would depend on Dewey Cable, owner of the airport and probably the largest single property owner in the area concerned. Mayor Eugene Nisbet said that Upland would be happy to have the airport within its limits.

Action was taken on the proposed addition as plans for subdividing much of the area concerned has already been laid before the council. At the last meeting, Nov. 21, it approved the subdivision plans of C. Bongiovanni, calling for the erection of 78 new houses.

It was felt by the council that it would be easier to bring the area into the city now than it would later on. City Manger R. G. Manley said that there were only about five families now living in the area.

Upland, Ontario To Be Represented at FBI Meeting Today

Law enforcement officers in San Bernardino county will gather at the County Garage auditorium, Sixth and Sierra way, San Bernardino, tonight for an FBI conference, according to an announcement from R. B. Hood, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles Field division of the FBI.

Police Chief Eugene L. Mueller and Councilmen Ray Sherwood and John Meek will attend the meeting from Upland while Chief A. W. Swinney and members of the police commission will represent Ontario.

This meeting which begins at 7:30 p.m. is part of a nation-wide program in which city, county, state and federal officers meet to discuss problems of mutual interest in law enforcement.

Accidents Double During November

There were almost twice as many automobile accidents in the city during November as a year ago, according to the monthly police report submitted to the city council.

Police reported 21 accidents during the month as compared with 11 in November, 1945.

Sixth Avenue Widening Will Cost $4,000

The question of widening Sixth avenue came before the city council last night, with City Manager R. G. Manley estimating the cost of the project at $4,000, half to be borne by the city and half by the property owners.

Opposition to the widening drew fire from Councilman Paul Hottel, who declared that it was too narrow for traffic safety and that if the residents didn't wish to go along with the city, it will probably be necessary to prohibit parking on the street or else make it a one way street.

William Bergman, 268 Sixth avenue, told the council that he would prefer the widening to no-parking signs. The council recognized that considerable misunderstanding existed and a new petition is being drawn up for the property owners involved explaining the situation.

City Attorney Henry Busch said that action necessary to remedy the present situation was clearly within the jurisdiction of the city council. Councilman Hottel added that a widened street would enhance the property values while making it a one-way or no-parking street would have the opposite affect.

There are about 30 property owners on the avenue between Ninth street and Arrow highway, and the cost for widening would run an estimated 81 cents per foot for the taxpayer.

The council also discussed Arrow highway and feasibility of restricting parking but no action was taken.

College Theater Group To Present First Play Of Year

The curtain goes up at 8:15 tonight on "Merton of the Movies," at the Chaffey Civic auditorium.

Paul Collier, 821 North Second avenue, has the lead in the play in the role of Merton Gill, Hollywood screen-struck boy. The supporting cast were picked from Chaffey's top talent and include Charles Adams, Richard Geiger, Doris Webster, Geraldine Ramsland, William Seay, Earl Shoneman Lillian Schafer, Shirley Stewart, Ralph Wadsworth,

PAUL COLLIER

Shirley Lutz, Phyllis Spotswood, John Wilson, June Phillips Valerie Fairfield, Tom Salyards, Eddie Bradbury, Elkert Laycock, Herbert Moffit, Harry Renek and Dick Phillips.

It is the story of the trial and tribulations of Merton Gill in crashing Hollywood. There are dance sequences throughout the play and the orchestra under the direction of Shirley Snyder. Dances are aranged by the Dorothy Williams studio, Ontario.

The make-up is under the direction of Rudo L. Fromma, professional from Pomona.

This is the first presentation since the war in the Civic auditorium by the Little Theater group. Several of the members of the cast have given previous performances before the public, and were warmly received.

Sequence numbers to the play are "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody," sung my Shirly Stewart, and dancers for the number are, Mary Naisbitt, Colleen Cowles, Naomi Bawser, Katherine Sibley, Huth Eoff and Bobbie Breaves.

Shirley Lutz will do the vocal for "Lay That Pistol Down, Babe," while Betty Kabetzka, Geralding Ramsland, Shirley Fees and Beverly L. Lazar will do the dance.

"Robinson Crusoe" will be sung by Charles Adams with Janice Fleming, Jan Pawling, Carolyn Schultz, and Geraldine Ramsland as chorines.

Tickets are on sale at the Chaffey student book store. General admission seats will be available at the entrance before curtain time.

Calls On Labor To Support Miners

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP)—An hour-long presidential cabinet meeting on the coal crisis broke up today with one member declaring privately:

"There will be no turning back in this fight."

This sentiment was voiced as CIO President Philip Murray called on all organized labor to join the battle against government efforts to end the miners' walkout by injunction.

President Truman presumably obtained his cabinet's views on the approach he should take in his Sunday night broadcast to the nation. After the cabinet meeting, the president also saw Rep. Randolph, democrat from a coal region of West Virginia.

With organized labor marshaling reinforcements for John L. Lewis' battle through the high courts, the United Mine workers posted bond to cover the $3,510,000 fines imposed on them for ignoring a court order against striking.

Pays Fine

The union put up U. S. government bonds with a face value of $3,500,000 and Lewis posted a $10,000 cash bond to meet his personal fine. Both cash and bonds were sent to a U. S. treasury vault for safekeeping.

Senator Capehart (R-Ind) meanwhile came out with a statement that he has "good reason to believe" the strike can be settled in one hour if Mr. Truman and Lewis sit down together.

He said he was "reliably informed" that Lewis, prior to receiving a sentence for contempt of court, had offered to start negotiations that would have settled the strike "satisfactorily."

The offer, Capehart's statement added, was made to Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough on the condition that the contempt sentencing be postpone for 24 hours. Government attorneys, Capehart said, rejected the proposal.

Speed Up

Earlier Judge Goldsborough took what was described as an "unusual" step to speed up the court appeal of John L. Lewis and his United Mine workers from a contempt of court conviction.

The jurist, who fined the UMW chief and the union for contempt, signed an order permitting the original record of the contempt proceedings to be used in laying the case before the next higher tribunal—the circuit court of appeals. Lewis and the UMW filed notice of an appeal yesterday.

The transfer of the original record was described at the district court clerk's office as "unusual." Copies of the record ordinarily are transmitted to the appellate court.

Examination of the clerk's records showed that the union had deposited as surety one $1,000,000 registered treasury bond; 160 treasury coupon bonds of $10,000 each, and nine other treasury certificates of $100,000 denomination each.

The denominations of the cash bills submitted by Lewis' attorneys were not disclosed.

SETTLEMENT

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—Wall street believes an early settlement of the coal strike is in the cards. This is the interpretation, widely held in the financial district, of current stock market action.

City Will Get New Tractor Soon

Bids for a new tractor will be issued soon by the city, following approval by the city council last night for the purchase of the equipment.

City Manager R. G Manley told the council that the larger tractor, a D-6, could be purchased for around $6,000 by trading in the old one. This would include an angle dozer blade and loader. Mr. Manley said that he believed he could get immediate delivery.

The new equipment will enable the city to construct better drainage ditches and can also be used for grading the baseball diamond, as well as other city work.

Wants Czar of Vet Affairs

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP)—A federal czar of Veterans affairs was proposed today in a War department report which said many former servicemen are bitter over net results of the G. I. Bill of Rights and other legislation for their benefit.

Lt. Col. Winthrop Rockefeller said a top level coordinator empowered to "cut red tape and act" is needed. He reported on a six months survey which he said showed both the federal government and local communities are "confused" for lack of a "master plan" for dealing with veterans' problems.

The survey was undertaken at the request of Secretary of War Patterson, who endorsed the report.

ATTEND MEET

Councilmen Ray Sherwood and John Meek and Police Chief Eugene Mueller attended the monthly meeting of the San Gabriel valley police chiefs at San Dimas Wednesday as guests of the Los Angeles county sheriff's ofice.

Its How You Play The Game, Grid Men Told

"There's something greater than winning; it's how you play the game," Ernest Payne, Chaffey faculty member and former track star at U.S.C., told members of the Upland Junior High school championship football team last night at a banquet held in their honor.

Speaking before a crowd of more than 100 which included representatives of the Upland Rotary and Lions club and their wives as well as Junior High school faculty members, Mr. Payne congratulated the Junior High school team on going through the season undefeated and extended a welcoming hand to them at Chaffey next year.

"It's very easy to cheer for a championship team," he declared turning to the two service clubs, "but unless you support a losing team as well you are not fulfilling your responsibility as team supporters."

Warning the boys who hung up seven victories without a defeat in the season just completed about getting the "football head," Mr. Payne said:

"In winning the championship you have assumed a certain responsibility. People are looking towards you as champions. Are you going to be just football champions or real champions?"

Clyde Frishholz, Junior High school coach, who was introduced by Edwin Dean, master of ceremonies, expressed his thanks to the team for their spirit and for the outstanding brand of football that they played all season.

"This is something that every coach dreams of," he said, "having an undefeated football team. I want to thank the boys for making this dream possible for me this year."

Harold W. Cook, district superintendent and school principal, said that he was well-pleased with the results this year and hoped that it would be possible in the not-too-distant future to build a gymnasium and showers for the school.

Other speakers included Robert Henderson, president of the Rotary club and Glenn Atwood, Lions district governor. Both stated that they were happy that their clubs could sponsor an event of this kind and were proud of the record established by the Junior High school teams.

Bill Casler, star halfback on the Upland team who was named captain by his teammates, spoke briefly, presented Coach Frishholz with a pen and pencil set and a picture of the team and Coach Dean an autographed football from the team.

Coal Strike Ties Up Christmas Mailing, Citrus Shipments

Lights Will Be Turned on Here Saturday Night

There'll be a "big time" in Upland Saturday night.

At least, there will be many, many Christmas lights and Yuletide decorations and holiday atmosphere as the Upland business district opens the gift buying season.

All the merchandise retail stores are scheduled to be open for the occasion and to assist in greeting the throng of visitors. While there is no special program planned, the first showing of the business district's Christmas attire is expected to appeal to many people.

There'll be no formal ceremony in turning on of the Christmas lights. As the street lights are illuminated at the usual time tomorrow evening, the business district will take on its color as only expertly placed Christmas lights and decorations can give. The stores will remain open until 8:30 p.m.

Usually only a small number of establishments are open Saturday nights but in accordance with a recently adopted plan, all the stores featuring Christmas merchandise will be open to assist gift buyers and to welcome people who want to merely look.

Ben Adams is chairman of the committee in charge of placing the decorations and Paul G. Hottel is chairman of the businessmen's committee.

"We want to cordially welcome every resident in the trading area to visit Upland Saturday night," the men said in a joint statement. "The merchants will be open to exhibit their gift suggestions and to give any possible cooperation in aiding local people."

Lights, with the usual Christmas colors, will be strung across the main busines arteries and their illumination will form a beautiful overhead canopy.

Council Rules On Parking

Aimed towards clearing up congested parking in the residential areas, the Upland city council last night ruled that any building under the new classification of commercial-restricted must provide off-street parking.

After being tossed back and forth between the council and the city planning commission, the definition of commercial-restricted was set forth last night as any building in the residential district for professional offices such as doctors, dentists, or architects.

The buildings must have a setback of at least 25 feet or the average for the street upon which it is located.

Lions, Wives Will Observe Anniversary

Twenty-second anniversary of receiving their charter will be observed by members of the Upland Lions club in a ladies' night party next Thursday.

After dining at a Foothill boulevard cafe, the club members and their wives will go to the Pasadena Playhouse, where "Laura" is on the stage.

Plans for the party were announced at yesterday's meeting in the Upland Woman's clubhouse by William Gilliland. The members and guests will meet at the clubhouse at 5:30 p.m. next Thursday and go in a group to the cafe and on to Pasadena.

Speaker at yesterday's meeting was Lewis Elmendorf, assistant field secretary of Old Baldy council of Boy Scouts, who told of summer Scout activities for the older Scouts.

TIRE STOLEN

James C. Surle, Fontana, night watchman for the new Grove theatre, reported to police early Friday that a spare tire and wheel were stolen from his car while parked in front of the postoffice.

November Rainfall Highest in Upland In 55 Years

Upland had more rain lasf month than in any other november in 55 years, Liberty Groves corporation reported today.

According to the records compiled by Liberty Groves since 1891, November, 1946, set an all-time record with 10.14 inches of rainfall. November, 1900, was second highest in rain, with 8.18 inches.

Nearly .50 inches of rain had fallen on the city from 7 o'clock this morning until noon today, according to Liberty Groves. Rainfall until 7 a.m. was .15 inches.

Rain this season is far ahead of last year with 13.14 inches. Last year only 1.31 had been measured up to today.

Coal Strike May Shut Down Kaiser Plant

If the coal strike and the resultant embargo continue until Jan. 8, the Kaiser Steel mill in Fontana will be forced to shut down completely, according to a statement today by A. B. Ordway, vice-president and general manager. The statement was issued from Oakland and released by the Kaiser plant in Fontana.

More than 500 men working on steel production will be laid off this Sunday if the strike continues and a reduction of 50 per cent in ingot production made, Mr. Ordway said.

If the miners are still idle by Dec. 22, all steel production will cease at the Fontana plant, probably throwing out of work some 2,000 more men. Finishing production will be curtailed 50 per cent at this time, resulting in a 50 per cent cut of employes working in those departments.

Should John L. Lewis and his miners fail to reach a settlement either with the government or the mine owners by Jan. 5, production will cease completely at the Kaiser plant and only a bare mminum of employes will be retained, according to Mr. Ordway.

Start Talks on Oakland Strike

OAKLAND, Dec. 6. (AP)—East Bay employers called a meeting this afternoon to find out who said exactly what in settling Alameda county's $14,000,000 general strike yesterday.

One leading participant in the settlement negotiations, who asked that his name be withheld, concluded that "just now, everybody is standing around with a knife at everybody else's back; the situation is ripe to break out all over again." But most other sources agreed that further flareups, if any, would be isolated and fragmentary, rather than a fresh general strike.

The two and a half days of civic paralysis ended at noon yesterday and picketing last night continued only at two retail stores —scene of the incident which started the general walkout. (Police had convoyed non-union trucks through the lines.)

The Oakland chamber of commerce estimated that the work stoppage by 100,000 members of 142 AFL union locals had cost $14,000,000 in wages, sales and production in its two and a half days duration. It figured wage losses at $10,000,000.

Johnson To Build Three-Room House

A building permit was issued Thursday by Richard Derby, building inspector to Rev. L. A. Johnson to construct a three room hourse at 635 East Eighth street on a lot owned by E. J. Sigler.

The house will contain 526 square feet and will cost an estimated $2,000.

Plans for Bazaar Here Completed

Final plans for the bazaar tomorrow at the Methodist church were made by the various circles of the Women's Society for Christian Service at their meetings yesterday.

Dolls and aprons will be featured among the handwork on sale at the bazaar. Cocked food also will be presented at various booths.

Scene of the bazaar will be Crowell hall of the Methodist church at Euclid and C street.

Postal Restrictions Go Into Effect; Food Shortages Also Loom for City

Although far from the coal-producing areas, Upland and all of Southern California will be severely hit by the walkout of John L. Lewis' 400,000 miners, it was indicated today by swiftly-moving events.

Postal restrictions went into effect at 12:01 this morning, seriously limiting Christmas mailing in and out of the city. But for some emergency exceptions Uplanders will not be able to mail anything over five pounds until some settlement is reached in widely-spreading strikes throughout the country.

Orange and lemon houses will be confronted with a shortage of refrigerator cars and engines, and according to Harry Harlow, manager of the Ontario-Cucamonga Fruit exchange, "Southern California stands to lose a major portion of its citrus crop".

"Southern California stands to lose a major portion of its citrus crop if the coal strike continues," was the prediction today by Harry Harlow, manager of the Ontario-Cucamonga Fruit exchange.

"At present our only restriction," he said, "is that the rails cannot be used to transport export fruits, but if the strike continues, refrigerator car, and engine shortages will develop which will make it impossible to transport our citrus fruits."

Southern Pacific has not as yet cut passenger or freight schedules, on the West coast since they are using their oil-burning locomotives.

It is difficult to ship foodstuffs from the West to the East because connections are difficult between oil-burning engines and regular locomotives. Only foodstuff can be shipped by rail under the freight embargo.

The Southern Pacific office reports that paralysis of the railroads in the East is already setting in. This is beginning to be felt in California with shipments from the East coming in slow.

The longer the coal strike continues, the more stagnant freight movements become in the east, the more it will be felt here as large shipments of supplies necessary for Southern California industries and manufacturers arrive by rail. For the same reasons it will be impossible to ship by rail east.

Should the strike last several weeks, its settlement would not relieve the situation at once. It would take considerable time to move the rolling stock of the railroads, to the points where they will be needed.

Postal restrictions were in effect here today as elsewhere in the nation as Uplanders discovered that they couldnt mail any Christmas packages outside of the city if they exceeded the five pound limit set by the Office of Defense Transportation.

Orton P. Brady, Upland postmaster, said that Upland postoffice had received orders from the Postmaster general that no article of first class mail, including air mail, over five pounds could be accepted for mailing. The same restriction holds for four class and in addition the package must not exceed 18 inces in length or 60 inches in length and girth combined.

These restrictions became effective at 12:01 a.m. today.

Nine exceptions to this rule, however, are provided in the order. The following will be accepted for mailing without any of the above restriction for the time being, Mr. Brady said:

1. Live day-old chicks and other poultry as provided in postal regulations.
2. Cut flowers, seeds, plans and other nursery stock.
3. Eggs, butter and other perishable food products normally accepted for mailing.
4. Serums, medicines, drugs, surgical instruments and dressings and hospital supplies.
5. Shipments of money in registered mail.
6. Local parcels and all local matter for delivery on local rural and star routes.
7. Parcels addressed to members of the armed forces and other persons served through the army postoffices and fleet postoffices.
8. Second class matter and mats for newspaper and magazine publications.
9. Films.

During emergency acceptance of international parcel post packages will be limited to those containing serums, medicines, drugs, surgical instruments and dressings and hospital supplies.

Mail for foreign destinations restricted to first class articles weighing not more than 4 lbs., 6 ounces, prints, sample small packets and commercial papers. Domestic restrictions to all mails to Canada, Mexico and territories and possessions of U. S.

Some Merchants Report Increase In Christmas Business, Others See Drop

With the first real post-war Christmas less than three weeks away, many Upland merchants report an increase in business from 10 per cent to double that of last year.

Others say their trade is about the same as in 1945 while a few see as much as a 40 per cent decrease.

Electric trains are among the toys available this year and a number of customers have been able to purchase electrical appliances, from refrigerators to toasters. Electric irons are back on the market. Wash tubs and ironing boards have been seen in some stores. Percolators have been in evidence occasionally.

Clothing store owners say business is above normal, since they have received men's suits and top-coats of good quality in limited quantities. The cost of clothing and essential household items is not the main objective of many customers, though all are seeking quality goods.

Business unrest, is increasing however, due to labor disputes and the transportation problems. Several business men said that the cut in the Kaiser payroll due to lack of coal, and the off-season for some citrus fruits are major factors in a threatening pre-Christmas slump.

Buyers are becoming increasingly more cautious stated one dealer of household items. "They are willing to buy if the article compares to pre-war standards."

Women buyers have become clothes conscious and all stores have a complete variety of suits, frocks, and formals.

Furs are available in many styles, and furriers report shipments of excellent quality.

Upland Legion Buys Surplus Buildings For Use As Clubhouse

New Quarters Due to Arrive December 15

Upland American Legion post has purchased two army surplus buildings at a cost of $2,042 and they are expected to arrive in Upland some time around Dec. 15.

This was reported to the Legionnaires at their meeting Wednesday night by the Building committee which is headed by Earl Marsh. There will be an additional charge of $206 for freight charges from Stockton where the buildings were purchased.

The two buildings will be placed on a site at Arrow highway and Grove avenue and will be reconverted for use into a Legion club house. It has not been decided as yet whether the buildings will be placed side by side or run together as one unit.

With the construction of a new Legion clubhouse now virtually certain, there seems to be little doubt that the present veterans quarters next to the city hall will be sold to the city. It had been agreed several months ago that the Legion would sell the building but the sale has been held in abeyance until such time as the post could find other permanent quarters.

Legion members themselves will erect the buildings at the Arrow-Grove site on Sunday, Dec. 15. All Legionnaires who were not at the meeting Wednesday will be asked by card to help in the construction of the new clubhouse.

It was unanimously approved by the Legion that a "Welcome Veterans" smoker be held in the new clubhouse some time in the middle of January. Plans are to invite all veterans in the Upland district to attend and get acquainted with the Legionnaires. Refreshments will be served at the meeting.

A letter from Mrs. J. B. McCarter, Girl Scout commissioner, requesting a yearly contribution to the building fund for Camp Conifer was referred to the executive committee for further action by Commander Houston Dewey.

Several members agreed to attend the county council meeting in Chino on Dec. 12. It will be a dinner meeting and ladies are invited to attend.

The January meeting was postponed from Jan. 1 which is New Year's day until the following Wednesday, Jan. 8.

District Judge Will Speak in Ontario

Judge Marvin York, presiding judge of the District Court of Appeals, will speak at St. George's church, 414 North Palm avenue, Ontario, this Sunday morning at the breakfast meeting of the Holy Name society.

Anyone interested is welcome to attend, according to Monsignor John M. Hegarty. The breakfast starts at 8 a. m.

A native of Berkeley, Judge York is the son of the late Judge Waldo M. York. He was educated in the public schools of San Luis Obispo and Pasadena and the Throop Polytechnic school and the University of Virginia law school. He was elected judge of the Superior Court of Los Angeles in 1912 and appointed to the District Court in 1926.

Build Garage From Old One

Permit to tear down an existing garage and use the lumber to build a new one has been granted to George L. Johnson, 425 East Eleventh street, by Richard Derby, city building inspector. The cost for the project is estimated at $100 and the new building will be 480 square feet.

Another permit issued within the city was to Hubert Dennis, 163 South Palm avenue, for termite repair. The Antimite Associates are the contractors and the cost is expected to be $230.

County building permits issued by the Upland office included one to John Belcher, 21 East Eleventh street, for insulating the walls on the cold storage plant at Baseline, west of Helman avenue, in Cucamonga. Cost will be $3,800 and Theodore Krysto is the contractor.

Four foot additions all around the house and remodeling of the stairs to conform to the building code are being made by Charles Snyder to his home in Cucamonga at Cornelia and Baseline. Cost will be $1,000.

Upland Merchants Offer Free Gift For Shut-in Child

There's a gift in store, at the Upland Firestone store, for any child who will be shut in this Christmas because of illness.

Milton Smith, manager, announced today that he would appreciate it if people would stop in at his store and tell him about any child they know who will be confined during the holiday season.

"Just give us the name and address of the child and we'll see to it that he or she is remembered this Christmas," Mr. Smith said.

There will be no charge for this service, Mr. Smith said.

Clubs Support Safety Program For Upland

Two local organizations, the Upland Parent-Teachers' association and the American Legion, have thrown their support to the traffic safety program proposed by the Upland Coordinating council by agreeing to undertake the project for one month each.

The P.-T. A. executive board, after expressing approval of the proposal designated its safety chairman, Mrs. Carl Ogren, to represent the group on the 12-man Upland Safety council.

At its regular monthly meeting Wednesday night, the Legion unanimously supported the traffic program and expressed its willingness to do all it can in the successful prosecution of the proposed campaign.

Other organizations are expected to follow suit very shortly in the civic safety program which is being handled by the Coordinating council at the request of the Upland city council. A total of 12 clubs have been requested to participate in the program.

Habeggers Entertain Sunday With Dinner For Entire Family

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Habegger, Hellman avenue and Nineteenth street, Alta Loma, entertained with a Thanksgiving dinner Sunday at their home. Places were laid for 27 guests at lace-covered tables in the dining room, with red roses for decoration.

Dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cline, Qwenn, Jack, and Donald, Upland, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schmutz, Alta Loma, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Habegger, Olin, Jr., Vera Faith, and Nancy, Lynwood, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Habegger, Phillip, and Dennis, North Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harvey and Gordon, Corona.

The group included all of Mr. and Mrs. Habegger's children and grandchildren and was the first time all had been together for several years since some of them had been in the service.

Other guests were Miss Dorothy Lantz, Richville, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Dettweiler and Evelyn, Alta Loma, and Mr. and Mrs. John Baumgartner, Upland. The afternoon was spent in visiting and taking pictures of the group.

Group To Vote On Egg Prices

The price program for 1947 will be be up for a vote when the Ontario-Upland Farm Bureau Poultry center meet at the Ontario Junior High school cafeteria next Friday at 7:30 p. m., according to an announcement from Harold Barbour, chairman.

The question of whether poultrymen want egg prices supported in case of a spring surplus will be discussed and definite action taken, Mr. Barbour said in urging all members to be present to express their opinion on the issue.

Dr. David D. Splaver, El Monte, will show movies on the Newcastle disease and discuss the effectiveness of the vaccine recently developed to combat this disorder.

The proposal to take a trip this January to see the manufacture of fish meal will also be discussed by the group.

Upland Elementary School Takes Over Where Junior High Left Off

It seems the Upland Elementary school is going to finish the project that the Junior High school started so well.

The Junior High school collected enough money to buy a heifer to be sent to European children and forwarded the amount to the Southern California chapter of the "Heifers for Relief" society at Pasadena.

The children at the Elementary school have collected $130 toward buying another heifer for their Christmas projects. The home room of Mrs. Ann Case is first with $32, Miss Esther Ziegler, second, Miss June Hendy, third.

The P.-T.A. Board Wednesday voted to give $25 to the project instead of Christmas trees for the classrooms as in the past. The teachers are giving $5 which would ordinarily be spent for refreshments at a Christmas party. This brings the total collected to $160. Through the efforts of these school children many European children will have a more healthful year in 1947 and the years to come.

A picture of the heifer to be purchased is on display at the school. It is divided into sections representing the different contributions.

CROWELL HALL OPENS TOMORROW FOR WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN SOCIETY BAZAAR

Final arrangements are being made by the Woman's Society of Christian service for their bazaar to be held tomorrow in Crowell hall at the Methodist church.

Numerous articles will be offered for sale to the public and of special note are several rag dolls. Other articles to be sold include fancy-work of all sorts, such as aprons. Food to take out will also be on sale.

The bazaar opens at 10 a.m. and will remain open through the day until all articles are sold.

The group met yesterday to complete plans for this bazaar and also to attend the final session of a study of India which was presented to the society by Mrs. John Baumgartner. In recognition of her work with the group, she was presented a gift.

In the afternoon, the circles met separately and all circles are in the process of reorganization.

P.-T. A. Group Joins Backing of City's Safety Campaign

The Upland Parent-Teacher's association became one of the first local organizations to back the safety program recently undertaken by the Upland coordinating council Wednesday when the board members voted to take charge of the safety campaign for a period of one month.

The board met in regular session Wednesday in the teacher's room at the elementary school, Mrs. James Flocker, president, in charge.

Mrs. Carl Ogren, as safety chairman, wil be the group's representative on the city's safety committee for the coming year and will also direct the work of the P.T.-A. during their campaign month.

The board also voted to donate money usually used to purchase Christmas trees for each room to the heifer fund being raised at the school. The heifer bought with the money raised by the school children will be sent to Europe.

Plans were also made for a rag drive to begin January 20 with Mrs. Poli Sanchez, finance and budget chairman, in charge.

About People

According to word received by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, Wilson avenue, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Value (Dorothy Phillips) have arrived in Honolulu, Hawaii, after making the passage on the liner Matsonia. The couple were married in July and had been awaiting passage for some time. They sailed from San Francisco last Friday and arrived on Wednesday. They will make their home in Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sherbondy, 339 South Third avenue, have as their winter guests Mrs. Sherbondy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Swartz, Akron, Ohio, who arrived in Upland Wednesday.

If you have any personal items such as the ones published in this column, we would be glad to hear from you. Call us at 311-06.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pyle, 255 South Third avenue, recently made a trip to Los Angeles to get Mr. Pyle's mother, Mrs. Lottie Pyle. Mrs. Pyle had just come from a trip to Jacksonville, Florida, where she was reunited with six sisters for the first family gathering in 48 years. Guests on Friday, arriving from San Diego were Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Stites and two small sons. On Saturday two sister of Mr. Pyle arrived from San Diego, Mrs. Ruby Adams and Mrs. Goldie C. Carpenter, returning with Mrs. Pyle to San Diego on Sunday.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL GROUP TO MEET FOR CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

Since their meeting was postponed last week because of Thanksgiving celebrations, the executive board of the Upland Business and Professional Women's club met last evening in the children's room of the Upland library.

Routine business matters were taken up, and the resignation of Mrs. Ralph T. Santolucito from office of second vice-president was accepted with regret. Mrs. Santolucito explained that it was necessary to resign from the position because of illness in her family.

Two new members were accepted and will be inducted at the December meeting.

Mrs. Evelyn Loch, president, took charge of the meeting which was attended by Mrs. Clara R. Jacobs, Mrs. Henry Dybsand, Mrs. William Tyler, Miss Ada Cooper and Miss Sadie Brainerd.

The next regular meeting of the club will take place December 12 at the Upland Woman's club, and will be a dinner followed by a Christmas party. Miss Jessie Brown will serve as chairman of the evening. She will be assisted by Mrs. George West, Mrs. Lottie Fuller and Mrs. Charles M. Hawthorne.

Simple Rites Unite Jesse Haldeman, Rena Burkholder

Wedding bells sounded in the home of Bishop J. H. Wagaman, 341 San Antonio avenue, Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when Jesse Haldeman, North Third avenue, and Miss Rena Burkholder, formerly of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, were united in marriage in the presence of a few guests.

After the ceremony a reception was given in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen D. Foote, 811 Washington boulevard. Miss Lorraine Eyer and Miss Alice Foote served the meal.

Following the reception the bride and groom were taken to Los Angeles by the son, Abner Haldeman, to start a wedding trip which is to include a prolonged visit with relatives and friends in Pennsylvania.

Fall Ingathering Held by Women at St. Mark's Church

Meeting yesterday for their fall ingathering, members of St. Mark's woman's auxiliary heard Mrs. Tracy Morris report on the woman's auxiliary triennial held in Philadelphia in October.

Preceding the speech, the women gathered in the church for communion and advent meditation.

The ingathering is a function of the auxiliary held semi-annually, and takes the place of a bazaar. The money received at the ingathering is given to the church at Christmas as a donation from the auxiliary.

Hostess committee for this meeting included the Mesdames Philip White, chairman; L. A. Weller, Stearns Ingalls, Roswell Brownson, and Kendle Hill.

Red, White and Blue Club Holds Luncheon, Christmas Party

Members of the Red, White and Blue club and their guests, Sons of Union Veterans, 62 strong, were in for a treat of Christmas turkey a la Mrs. R. G. Jester when they met Tuesday in memorial hall.

Gifts were exchanged among those present and additional gifts were brought for the children at Casa Colina and for Mexican children.

In charge of dinner arrangements was Mrs. Charles Knoll, who was assisted by Mrs. Albert Crosslin and others, and Mrs. Ralph Marr had charge of decorations. The birthday cake was baked by Miss Beulah Youngblood who also assisted Mrs. Jester in the preparation of the turkey.

A social afternoon was enjoyed by the group. The next meeting date is January 7.

Presbyterian Women Hear Two Speakers At Regular Session

With an attendance of well over 100 persons, members of the Woman's association of the Presbyterian church met in regular session yesterday.

Following a short business session, Mrs. Paul Coronel spoke, telling of the Christmas customs in Mexico.

A Christmas theme was followed in the decoration for the following luncheon, using pines, red berries and candles. Mrs. Marion Miller and Mrs. Otto Roen arranged decorations.

Group one, directed by Mrs. A. C. Beattie, served the luncheon.

Rev. Harland Hogue, professor of religion at Scripps college, was luncheon speaker and presented to the women a word-picture of the city of Bethlehem as it is today.

To add to the Christmas spirit at the meeting, Mrs. Clarence Beekman read the Christmas story from the Book of Luke in the Bible. Christmas carols were sung by a group of elementary school pupils, under the direction of Miss Barbara Berkeley.

Missionary Society Members Exchange Christmas Gifts

A Christmas party following a shortened business session was on the calendar for members of the Woman's Missionary society of the Mennonite church when they met Wednesday afternoon.

Devotionals were given by Mrs. Sol Scheitz. During the afternoon, the 31 present joined in the singing of Christmas carols and each gave a Christmas "thought."

Tiny Larice Boshart, granddaughter of Mrs. J. A. Hebert, program chairman, brought the Christmas gifts for those present in on a wagon and delivered the gifts. As a part of the program, Larice sang "The Lord's Prayer."

A gift was also presented to Mrs. Earl Salzman, the pastor's wife and also this year's president.

Mrs. Ed. Haury, chairman of the social committee, and her assistants served refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Legion Auxiliary Has Christmas Party

Meeting last night for their annual Christmas party, members of the American Legion auxiliary exchanged gifts and participated in a program following the Christmas spirit.

The executive board met earlier in the week to dispense with most of the business and as a result, only a shortened business session was held last night. A report was given, however, on the Legion's recent turkey shoot for which the women provided the food.

During the evening, those present sang Christmas carols and took part in various guessing games.

Wednesday Luncheon Club Holds Meeting

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Edna Brown, 1423 North Euclid avenue, members of the Wednesday luncheon club gathered for bridge.

First prize went to Mrs. William C. Cline with Mrs. C. K. Francisco taking consolation prize.

Mrs. I. J. Linkey was hostess for this month's meeting and those present were the Mesdames Cline, Milton F. Huxtable, Glenn M. Atwood, Francisco, Loring N. Kirk, F. H. Manker, Ernest C. Mehl, Charles O. Deverts, Bert C. Nichols, and J. F. Sawyer.

Crackdown on Dole Drones—

Within 10 days after the State Department of Employment took over the functions of the former United States Employment Service in California, 26 warrants were filed in State courts against persons suspected of illegally drawing unemployment compensation—with many more warrants in preparation.

This evident beginning of a sweeping crackdown on dole drones is evidence of an evil long emphasized by state leaders—that centralized federal administration of unemployment relief machinery in the states must be inefficient and made liable to widespread abuse by the very remoteness of Washington, D. C.

Added to inefficiency under federal management is a record of the waste of millions of dollars. Before the USES took over—in one of the scores of "war emergency" usurpations of state functions—California's state government operated the agency with 1387 employees on a budget of $2,841,000. When the USES closed shop and returned the agency to California, it was operating with 2064 employees on a budget of $5,400,000. In other words, with more hired help, at nearly twice the expenditure to taxpayers, and with marked reduction in caliber of service.

Now that the State of California is again in control of this state function, and taking steps to eradicate the "bugs" of federal bungling and extravagance, there is little point in belaboring Washington for its sins of omission and commission in this particular field. But it is well to note, once again, the simple truth that Washington bureaucrats find so hard to understand: the fact that the government in Sacramento is closer to every community in California than is the government in Washington—a lot closer!

This Life We Live

By JAMES V. LATIMER

In a recent novel, "The Great Promise", by Noel Houston, there is a challenging line. The story is based on the land rush and the new towns when a certain section of our country was first opened for settlers and homesteaders during the early years of this country. People rushed in from every state and by every means of transportation, such as in buggies, on bicycles, by covered wagons and on foot. Those were hectic days for the newcomers.

In that hardy group of adventurers was a young woman who was always harking back to her days and experiences in the cities of the East, such as Baltimore, Washington, New York, and others. One day the hotel manager said to her, "There is no such thing as YESTERDAY in this counrty. What you are today—that's all that matters. This is a new country and it begins every morning."

How fine it would be if everyone could rise every morning and say to himself, "This is today and I must live it aright, because there is no yesterday for me". The fact is that all of our yesterdays are gone and only today is here. The varied experiences of past failures, disappointments, losses or sorrows, whether in the matter of money or in friendships—all belong to the yesterdays of our lives and are gone, for today is here and an endless tomorrow. We should live then in the spirit of not repeating the things that brought sorrow and refuse to live again the regretted yesterdays. To my friends, young or older, I say:

Harbour no regrets; keep your chin up; today is today, and the morrow will soon be upon us.

No well-balanced mind longs for childhood days again. There were pleasant experiences, of course, but no one in his right mind would long for those trying days of the beginning of the school or the task of winning our place in the gang of the neighbourhood, or even the fights in which we accounted ourselves as victors. We may retell some of these experiences with a modest degree of boasting; but they are back of us and are gone. We face the coming day as men, and the new day is given to us for service, for kindly deeds, for progress and for happiness. In this life we life there are no yesterdays, for all are today or the morrow.

Around Town

BY THE TOWNSMAN

With so much attention focused on the Chaffey college and high school teams, it took a banquet like the one last night to make a lot of people realize that the Upland Junior High school had a championship team this year, too.

To Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thompson who conceived the idea of the dinner honoring the team goes most of the credit for the success that it was. Also, the Rotary and Lions clubs for sponsoring the event.

It was interesting to have Coach Clyde Frishholz confess that on several occasions when he had his doubts that the team would win on the following day, Mrs. Frishholz kept up his morale by telling him that they would come through. Maybe she ought to be appointed assistant coach next year, at least.

You could tell that the Rotarians and Lions are used to singing. They were really in good voice during the community singing but we missed hearing a solo from Francis "Squeek" Wilson.

The Upland Junior High school is fortunate in having a principal like Harold W. Cook who takes such a keen interest in football and knows so much about it.

No doubt many of the boys who battled their way to a undefeated season this year will be a welcome addition to the Chaffey Tiger squad next year. The Upland school has always provided some outstanding players and next year will be no exception. Bill Casler and Fred Christensen, to mention just two, should have little trouble in making the Chaffey sophomore squad.

Miss Marie Eden and Miss Florence Armstrong did a fine job of decorating the table and giving the whole place a real big-time banquet air. Edwin Dean, who was in general charge of the affair and acted as master of ceremonies, also deserves a lot of commendation.

Frankly, we were surprise at the way Ernie Camfield tickled the ivories. We didn't know he was good on the piano, too.

It was indeed a fine evening and we'll be looking forward to another one next year, even if the team should lose all their games. We agree with Ernie Payne that, win or lose, it's our team and we're for them.

Chaffey College Cagers Open Season Against Corona Tonight

Coach Shirk Sees Good Season Ahead

Playing their first game of the current season, the Chaffey Panthers will meet the Corona Naval hospital cagers tonight at Corona.

The Chaffey Junior varsity will play the first game beginning at 6:45 p.m., with the varsity fives moving into action right after the end of the preliminary contest.

Although Earle Nelson is the only returning letterman on the squad, Coach Harvey Shirk is still optimistic. He would not predict as to the outcome of the game tonight but said that he was looking for a successful season.

The boys from Corona defeated March Field last season 70 to 63. With the spark the Chaffey lads have shown in practice, tomorrow night will probably be one of the fastest games of the season.

Basketballers to see action tomorrow for Chaffey are: Ray Morrison, Howard Weeks, Bill Dingle, Chet Nicholson and Dick Mattingly, forwards; Ansel McCullough, Ted Smith, and Neville Alexander, centers; Earl Daniels, Dick Morgan, Kennie Parkin, Don McCullough, Don McClure, guards.

Officials for the game will be picked from the Riverside association.

The first home game will be with Long Beach Junior college. The Junior varsity of Chaffey will also play the J. V's of Long Beach the same evening, Friday 13. Game time will be 7 p.m.

Tickets for Rose Bowl Kickoff May Be Secured Here

Local football fans who are interested in attending the Rose bowl Kickoff breakfast Monday noon, Dec. 30, in Pasadena may secure tickets from Eugene L. Mueller, Upland police chief and president of the Chaffey Quarterbacks' club.

Leading coaches and sport writers both from the East and West will be present at the luncheon which is an annual affair before the Rose bowl game on New Years' day.

As a special feature this year members of the University of California and Washington and Jefferson school in Pennsylvania, the two teams who played in the Rose bowl 25 years ago, will be the honored guests.

Chief Mueller has 40 tickets which he secured from the Pasadena Kiwanis club. Those interested may contact him at the Upland police station.

Hoop Prospects Look Good Here

An entirely new group has turned out this year for basketball at the Upland Junior High school, Coach Edwin Dean said today as he viewed the prospects for the coming year with an approving eye.

As yet no games are scheduled. Coach Dean said they would probably play the same teams as the football team did this season.

The boys have been turning out for practice the past week and several boys have shown plenty of snappy play. Although Coach Dean would make no definite statements, he seemed to be well-pleased with the basketball future at the Junior High school.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6. (Æ)—UCLA and Southern California make their 1946 basketball debuts tonight in a doubleheader, the Bruins opposing Santa Barbara State and the Trojans, University of San Francisco.

Nixon, Sachs, McCullough on Honor Teams

The Chaffey Panthers, champions of the Orange Empire conference, received some recognition from the All-Southern California board of football with the selection yesterday of Jack Nixon, Chaffey end, on the All-Southern California team.

Also honored were three other Panthermen who were named on the All-Orange Empire eleven. Bob Sachs, of Upland, joined Nixon to take over the end spots while Ansel McCullough, whose passes haved more than one game for Chaffey, was named as one of the backs.

Three Chaffey Panthers who were named on All-Southern California and All-Orange Empire leagues will receive their plaquest at the Little Rose bowl game tomorrow afternoon. Jack Nixon, Ansel McCullough and Bob Sachs are the three selected.

Others named in the Orange Empire were James Cook, George Roussos, both of Santa Ana, tackles; Eugent Bynum, Mt. San Antonio, Gene Harris Fullerton, guards; Wiliam Sheflin Santa Ana, center; Albert Cantor, Santa Ana, quarterback, and named with McCullough as backs were Lee Hodge, Fulerton, Robert Henley, San Bernardino and Jack Pickering, Santa Ana.

The Compton Tartars led in the number of men on the All-Southern California team, placing four of the 12 named.

LILY BOWL

Panthers End Grid Season

The Chaffey Panthers checked in their football suits yesterday to officially close a successful season.

They are the champions of the Orange Empire conference and had scheduled a post season game with Modesto, the Central California Junior college football champions, for tomorrow but it had to be called off.

The weather at Modesto at this time of year is unpredictable, as a result insurance companies would not cover the game. Without insurance Modesto could not guarantee the expenses of the Chaffey Panthers, so there was no alternative but to cancel the game.

Fans will have the opportunity to see the two teams in action next fall as they are scheduled for a game early next season. This game will probably be played there.

Compton, Kilgore To Meet Saturday

PASADENA, Dec. 6. (Æ) — The mythical National Junior College championship is at stake tomorrow as the Kilgore, Tex., Rangers, undefeated and untied in 10 games, meet once-beaten Compton, California's pride, in the first Little Rose bowl game.

Fish and Game Association Will Hold 2nd Reorganization Meeting

The second reorganization meeting of the West End Fish and Game association will be held at Cox's Hatchery in Ontario next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

All former members and those interested in hunting or fishing are invited to attend. A board of directors which would adequately represent all of the areas in the West End will be elected at the meeting Wednesday. Those who attend may also bring guests with them.

At the meeting last Wednesday night Roy Boles was re-elected president; Richard Derby, Upland building inspector, vice-president, and Clifford Bradford, secretary. All three were officers prior to the inactivation of the group during the war.

Mr. Derby asks that all those attending, bring a camp stool, chair, orange crate or something to sit on as there will be no sitting facilities available at the hatchery. The meeting is being held there temporarily until a permant meeting place can be arranged.

A committee which has been working on a few revisions to the club's by-laws will make its report Wednesday at which time members will take action on the committee's recommendations.

Ladies are also welcome to attend the meeting.

Chaffey District League Gets Ready for Opening Games Jan. 8

The Chaffey District Basketball league will officially get underway on Jan. 8 when the first league game will be played, according to Paul Halverson, league president.

The schedule which has been drawn up carries through until February 20, with the playoffs planned for February 26 and 27. Two new additions are the Pacific Overseas Airlines and the Bambu Hut. The latter replaces Maize-Salyards which withdrew in favor of the latter.

Harvey Shirk, Chaffey athletic director, is league commissioner and also in charge of officiating. Games will be played on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Schedule follows:

January 8—Etiwanda vs. M. K. Smith; Bank of America vs. Bambu Hut.

January 9—G. E. vs. Exchange Orange Products; American Legion vs. P. O. A.

January 15—M. K. Smith vs. Bank of America; Bambu Hut vs. G. E.

January 16—Exchange Orange Products vs. American Legion; P.O.A. vs. Etiwanda.

January 22—Bank of America vs. G. E.; M. K. Smith vs. Exchange Orange Products.

January 23—Bambu Hut vs. P.O.A.; American Legion vs. Etiwanda.

January 29—Bambu Hut vs. Exchange Orange Products; American Legion vs. Bank of America.

January 30—P.O.A. vs. M. K. Smith; G. E. vs. Etiwanda.

February 5—G. E. vs. American Legion; P.O.A. vs. Bank of America.

February 6—Exchange Orange Products vs. Etiwanda; M. K. Smith vs. Bambu Hut.

February 12—G. E. vs. P.O.A.; Exchange Orange Products vs. Bank of America.

February 13—M. K. Smith vs. American Legion; Bambu Hut vs. Etiwanda.

February 19—Etiwanda vs. Bank of America; M. K. Smith vs. G. E.

February 20—Bambu Hut vs. American Legion; Exchange Orange Products vs. P.O.A.

February 26-27 (Playoff games).

Be in Upland business district Saturday night for Christmas preview. (adv. 66-1)

Missouri Valley

Creighton Hoopmen Confident of Title

(This is the first in a series compiled by Associated Press sports writers on the prospects of all the major basketball conference in the nation.)

By L. E. SKELLEY

DES MOINES—Little Eddie Hickey has returned to Creighton and it's a sure-fire bet his Bluejays will be in the thick of the fight for the 1947 Missouri Valley conference basketball championship.

Hickey has several members of Creighton's 1943 title team to carry the big load in his post-war debut.

Before Hickey entered Navy service his teams won or shared four conference titles during his seven-year reign.

There's plenty of confidence around the Creighton camp while down at Stillwater, Okla., home of the Oklahoma Aggies, NCAA champs the last two years, Hank Iba is starting practically from scratch.

Iba Loses Kurland

Iba has only one letterman from the 1946 champions and right now he doesn't know what to expect. His top loss was towering Bob Kurland who bettered all Aggie scoring records during his four-year stay in Aggieland.

If the Aggies don't come through to challenge Creighton, the threat may come from St. Louis and Wichita.

At St. Louis, Coach Johnny Flannigan admits this might be the Billikens' year.

Wichita, second-place team ahead of St. Louis last year, has eight lettermen and some 17 freshmen for Coach Mel Binford and Shocker fans are thinking that the veterans coach may come through with one of the best clubs in Wichita history.

There's plenty of enthusiasm, too, at Dranke, Tulsa and Washington.

Drake, operating under Forrest Anderson for the first time, has 11 lettermen, including six from last season.

Don Shields at Tulsa has only one letterman, Gerald Carrens, leading scorer last year. But the head man concedes that this year's team will be a big improvement over his first Hurricane production.

Coach Ray Blake has trimmed his Washington squad to 15 from more than 100 candidates. He has four lettermen and some outstanding newcomers, including

EDDIE HICKEY

Bob Cosgriff of Tipton, La., an ex-Marine, and Bob Maxeiner of Jefferson City, Mo.

Each school has arranged a heavy schedule with intersectional contest prominent on the cards.

The Aggies will make their annual early eastern trip which will include a Madison Square Garden appearance against Long Island U. and a game with Temple at Philadelphia. They'll also meet Kentucky at New Orleans in a Sugar bowl week attraction.

St. Louis also will go east to appear in the Garden against Long Island.

Next: Big Seven.

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 6. (Æ)—The first hole-in-one in the 23-year history of the $10,000 Miami Open Golf tournament was made today by Ernie Tardiff, unattached pro from Los Angeles, as a fast field attempted to overtake Slammin' Sammy Snead.

EVERY RESIDENT IS ELIGIBLE

Every family in Upland, Alta Loma,, Cucamonga and Etiwanda is included in the Upland Merchants' Dividend Day. A directory has been especially compiled by The Upland News. This directory includes every house address in these communities—Upland, the outlying district, and the three communities east of Upland.

A page number and line number are selected in a drawing to determine where the "Dividend Day Man" will call with the award. Thus, an address is selected from the directory. If the family receiving the call qualifies by having sales slips, the award is presented. The call is made at 6 p. m. every Monday. The sales slips must be dated Saturday.

The dividend sales do not have to be for cash, a "charged" sales slip being acceptable. In all fairness, however, a sales slip for payment on account cannot be eligible for use on dividend day.

(COPYRIGHTED JOE DOWNEY)

All of jack-pot may be won if person has two or more sales slips from two or more stores with total purchases over $1.00.
$1 if person selected has no sales slip.
$5 if person selected has one sales slip.

Universal Bible Sunday Provides Sermon Theme

Preaching on the theme, "By the Word of His Power," the Rev. C. R. Heisey and the Brethren in Christ congregation will join with churches over the country in the observance of Universal Bible Sunday. The observance, which has the backing of the American Bible Society and which is a project to arouse the nation to such observation, takes the theme "The Word of Power for a Power Age."

During evening services at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Shirley Bitner, who is on her way to India will present a missionary message.

Motion Pictures

Dr. Samuel Hughes, First Methodist church, brings the fifth sermon in the series, "Facing Life and Getting the Best of It," Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

At 7:30 the motion picture "Robinson Crusoe" will be shown. This is a photographic story of Defoe's book, with a description by the radio narrator, "Uncle Don." A second reel, "Aida," is a presentation of the well-known "Triumphal March and Entry" from the Verdi opera by the National Philharmonic Symphony orchestra, augmented by a mixed chorus shown with the orchestra.

Seth E. Rehkop will be guest speaker at the Church of Christ, Wednesday, 7:30. All Sunday services will be held at the regular time.

Dedicate Organ

To dedicate their new Hammond electric organ, the First Church of the Nazarene will have a special service Sunday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. The guest artists are Sheldon Taylor, organist for the First Free Methodist church, Ontario, and Rev. Earle Anderson, vocalist from Glendora.

The pastor, the Rev. W. H. Burton, will speak during the morning worship service on the subject, "Our Own God," with a vocal solo to be given by Warren Sheets. Topic for the evening service will be "Going Home."

List Topics

"The Difficulties of Reading the Bible" is the sermon topic announced by the Rev. Earl Salzman, pastor of the First Mennonite church for Sunday services at 10:30 a. m.

"The Neglected Word" is the theme of a sermon to be given to the congregation of St. Mark's Episcopal church by the Rev. John A. Luther, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The art exhibit sponsored by the church opens at 4 p. m.

Dr. Rufus Oakey, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has announced "Syndicating Our Joys" as the subject of his Sunday morning sermon.

"God the Only Cause and Creator' is the Sunday lesson-sermon at the Christian Scientist church, Ontario, 11 a. m.

The Rev. William A. Hulet, pastor of the First Free Methodist church, Ontario, continues his sermon series with the subject, "I Believe in the Bible." A guest speaker, the Rev. Alfred Herald, will speak at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The Christmas season with its carols, organ music and introductory message will be opened by the worshippers at Bethel Congregational church this Sunday. The minister, the Rev. Charles L. Knight, speaks on "John the Baptist; Pioneer of the New Kingdom"

The Rev. James S. Cook, pastor of the Bethany Union church in San Antonio Heights, announced today that the fourth and final series of sermons on "Called Into Holiness" would be delivered Sunday morning. The sermon topic will be "Rustling with Christ."

Russia Accepts American Plan For Control Of Atomic Energy

Proposal Is Best For All Molotov Says

BY LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 6. (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov today accepted an American provision for early settlement of international control for atomic energy and "other modern technological discoveries" to ensure their use for peaceful purposes only.

The proposal, put forward as an amendment yesterday by Senator Tom Connally (D-Tex), in the United Nations drafting subcommittee debate on arms reduction was described by Molotov as meeting "the wishes of all of us."

It had been feared in some quarters that United States insistence on also establishing controls over the use of atomic energy for peaceful purposes would snag the discussions.

The Russian decision in effect represented an easing of its previous insistence that atomic weapons should be outlawed immediately in contrast to the American view that any such step should be part of a general atomic control plan.

"The Soviet Union is anxious to adopt a clear-cut and simple proposal for outlawing atomic weapons and let the security council consider it in detail," Molotov declared.

Sir Hartley Shawcross, chief British delegate, objected to Molotov's proposal for setting up a convention to outlaw atomic weapons and leaving other "so-called details" to the security council.

Shawcross stressed that he could not agree to leave "points of substance even though called details" open to the veto in the council.

"Molotov is saying in effect that you want a whisky and soda. All right, here is the soda—we'll give the whisky to the security council."

The United States made a direct appeal to Russia last night for support of the American plan to control the atomic bomb and urged the United Nations Atomic Energy commission approve the plan before the end of the year.

LOVE PAIR TO BE SEEN AT LOCAL MOVIE

Two who have captured the public eye, Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall, dynamic love team, will be seen at the Upland theatre Sunday and Monday in "The Big Sleep".

Church Art Exhibit Opens With Tea

The St. Mark's Episcopal church art exhibit, believed to be the first in the West to be sponsored by a church, will open Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with a tea in the Parish hall.

Selected paintings, drawings and sculptoring will be displayed by art students from Claremont colleges and by Miss Betty Davenport, of Ontario, who made the Hanging Roode at St. Mark's and is at present working on the Creche or nativity scene. Some pieces of the latter which are completed will be exhibited by Miss Davenport.

All art patrons in Upland, Ontario, Claremont, Cucamonga, Alta Loma and other nearby areas are cordially invited by Rev. John Luther, church rector, to attend the opening of the exhibit Sunday afternoon.

Opening Sunday, the exhibit will continue through Dec. 22, the Rev. Luther said. Although it will be open from 2 to 4 p.m. on the opening day, hours for the rest of the week were announced as 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Hostesses Sunday will be Mesdames Millard Sheets, William Manker, Henry Lee McFee and Albert Stewart.

Assisting Henry Lee McFee, professor of art at Claremont colleges, are Frederick Meiers, Holmes Coates, Cristy Palmer, Sheldon Horton and Nancy Stablesford, all graduate art students. Some of them have also entered paintings in the exhibit. Mr. Horton assisted Professor McFee in decorating the church recently and Mr. Meiers will take part in decorations planned for the future.

Hold Services for Miss May Greenleaf

Final rites will be held at St. Mark's Episcopal church Saturday at 11 a.m. for Miss Alice Featherston, Archibald and Fourth street, Cucamonga, who passed away early Thursday morning.

Native of Buffalo, N. Y., Miss Featherston had lived with her sister, Miss Antoinette Featherston, in their Cucamonga home for 59 years. She was an active member of St. Mark's church and of the Woman's auxiliary. She had been in failing health for several years.

Discuss Tax On Bus Lines

The possibility of a transportation ordinance was discussed at the city council meeting last night, but no action was taken.

The discussion centered around the recent extension of the Citrus Belt bus line to Los Olivos, which was approved by the State Railroad commission without consulting the city. This new spur, the council felt, will answer some of the demand for an extended service, but will still leave those people living in the northern sections of the city without transportation.

City Attorney Henry Busch said that in a city this size, buses could operate without a franchise, but that the city could pass ordinances to tax them or require licenses.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

UNITED STATES—The CPA arranged to clamp down a new series of fuel conservation restrictions unless a coal strike settlement is reached before Monday.

BRITAIN—Food Minister John Strachey said the U. S. coal strike threatened to cut food supplies for Britain and other countries depending upon North American experts.

RUSSIA — A Paris rightist newspaper, L'Epoque, quoted unidentified "sources in London" as saying Prime Minister Stalin suffered "a new stroke Nov. 4" and was taken to a Black Sea city near Batum.

CHINA—The communists offered to make a fresh start at peace negotiations, but imposed conditions which sources close to Chiang-Kai-Shek said would bar serious consideration.

United Nations—The headquarters committee neared a showdown vote on a permanent site. The U. S. appear to Russia to support the American plan to control the atomic bomb.

Hold Services for Alice Featherston, Long-Time Resident

Services are to be held tomorrow, 10:30 a.m., at Stone's Funeral home for Miss May Greenleaf, 280 South First avenue, who passed away Wednesday in a San Bernardino hospital.

Miss Greenleaf came to Upland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Greenleaf in 1903. She taught art in Pasadena, Claremont and Tustin, the latter being her last position. She retired from the teaching profession about 10 years ago. Cause of death was given as cerebral hemorrhage.

She leaves three sisters, Mrs. Frank F. Palmer, a twin sister, Ontario, Mrs. Allan Brankamp, Banning, and Mrs. Helen G. Lane, Long Beach, and one niece, Mrs. Curtis Frank, Ontario.

Dr. Rufus Oakey will officiate at the services and burial will follow at Bellevue cemetery.

Council Gives $100 for Lighted Christmas Trees Along Euclid

A program for Christmas decorations which would eventually provide lighted Christmas trees from Foothill boulevard to A street in Ontario along Euclid avenue was outlined last night at the city council meeting by Ben Adams and Ellery F. Wright, representing the Upland chamber of commerce.

Mr. Wright said that the chamber would like to have three or four trees to the block and move south to the city limits. He said that Ontario was doing the same and was moving towards Upland along the avenue.

Councilman Paul Hottel suggested that permanent electric facilities be provided in the center of the avenue.

Mr. Wright told the council that the chamber of commerce had collected funds from the merchants for the downtown Christmas decorations, but felt that it was up to the community to decorate Euclid avenue. Mr. Adams added that Euclid avenue belonged to everyone and not those owning property there, and he was proud of the thoroughfare and wanted to do all he could to beautify it.

The city council voted to give the chamber $100 towards the project, provided that the chamber appropriate a like sum.

Hold Long Services Tomorrow at Stone's

Final arrangements have been made for Mary Ellen Long, former resident of Upland who had been living in Pomona, who passed away November 31. Stone's Funeral home is in charge of arangements for rites to be held on Saturday, 2 p.m., Dr. Rufus W. Oakey officiating, with interment at Bellevue cemetery.
